

MUCK QUITS THE U. S. IN BITTER MOOD

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—Count James Minotto, son-in-law of Louis S. Swift, the Chicago packer, and Dr. Karl Muck, former leader of the Boston Symphony orchestra, both of whom were interned during the war as enemy aliens, sailed from here today for Copenhagen on the Scandinavian American steamer Frederick VIII.

Asserting that he was an American and not a German, but that he sailed for Denmark "a man without a flag or country," Dr. Muck arrived at the pier with his wife only a short time before the hour of departure. He was accompanied by an operative of the department of justice whose duty it was to see that the musician boarded the liner.

His done the secret service agent warned Captain A. G. Thomsen, commanding the vessel, to make sure Dr. Muck did not leave it within the three mile limit.

On stepping aboard the Frederick VIII Dr. Muck denied his identity until a fellow passenger with whom he was acquainted threw his arms around his neck and kissed him.

Dr. Muck was in a bitter mood as today he took his departure from the land in which he had been applauded.

He left the United States he declared, with no regrets, "as the country is being controlled by sentiment which closely borders on mob rule." He denounced newspapers which, he said, had attacked his Americanism on a story circulated by "jealous rivals," and praised "some people in the musical world who stuck by me." These, he said, were the only persons he cared about.

The orchestra which once he led was "a thing of the past," he declared. Twenty-nine German born members had been interned, he said, and he doubted if the group of musicians could ever again be brought together. As for himself he said, he did not know what plans he would make on arriving in Denmark.

Count Minotto was arrested in Chicago on November 28, 1917, with pro-German activities, which he denied. Held for investigation, he was taken in charge by the department of justice on a presidential warrant May 14, 1918. A few days later he was adjudged an enemy alien and interned, an appeal being dismissed.

PRIZES AWARDED FOR BEST FLOATS

The judges for the patriotic, business floats, etc., for the Soldiers Welcome Home celebration on Wednesday have rendered the following decisions.

For patriotic floats: Liberty float by Third ward, first prize, $25; Over the Top float, by Ninth ward, 2nd prize, $10.

Business floats, Cleveland tractor, 1st prize, $25; and float by Anderson Lumber Co., second prize, $10.

Best decorated automobiles, Geo. A. Lindquist, 1st prize, $25; Mr. H. F. Mitchell, second prize, $10.

Best decorated window, Cardon Co., 1st prize $25; Mose Lewis, 2nd prize $10.

The competition was very close and it took the judges most of the day to make up their minds as to the best, especially on the patriotic floats.

MAN HIT 72 TIMES BY THE GERMANS

Mr. L. F. Rose who saw 51 months service with the Canadians is working on the A. F. Cardon farm west of town. Mr. Rose was hit 72 times and carries eleven wound stripes. He has six decorations. His home is in Pocatello. We are giving herewith some of his experiences, taken from the Pocatello Tribune:

Having served fifty-one months in France with the Canadian army, during which he was wounded seventy-two times, Sergeant L. F. Rose, winner of the Victoria Cross as well as five other decorations, visited the Tribune office this morning and told many interesting stories of his experiences with the First Canadian division. Mr. Rose is representative in this district of the Empire Cream Separator company and in view of the fact that Pocatello is the best distributing point in the northwest, he chose this city as headquarters and will work out of here. He is mightily glad to get back into civilian clothes again after over four years in the Canadian army, and while he had had many narrow escapes, feels a little more fortunate than his two brothers also members of the famous First Canadian division, who were killed in France.

HAS ELEVEN WOUND STRIPES
Rose won for himself a record probably unequalled by any other man in the Rocky Mountain region. His seventy-two wounds were incurred on eleven different occasions, giving him the privilege of wearing eleven wound chevrons.

Rose was awarded the Victoria Cross, which carries with it a life pension and the honorary rank of captain for smashing a German counter attack and bringing eighteen German prisoners unaided at the battle of Lens.

"We had just made an attack and had captured eighteen prisoners," said Rose. "Four of us started back with the prisoners. Then the Germans launched a counter attack to recapture the prisoners. A score of them attacked us and the prisoners joined them. They finally killed the other three. But we had killed so many of them and I succeeded in heaving a few hand grenades into their midst so well that the few that were left fled. The German prisoners returned with me."

The British Distinguished Service medal was awarded to Rose for recapturing seven prisoners at the second battle of Vimy Ridge. He previously had thrown a hand grenade into the dugout where they were hiding, killing fourteen others.

He won the Belgian Cross de Guerre for a similar exploit at the first battle of Vimy Ridge. This feat resulted in the capture of three prisoners and the death of five.

HURLS HAND GRENADE AT THE HUNS

He possesses the French Croix de Guerre, with one star, for an extraordinary exploit performed while a German prisoner during the battle of Lens. Three days after the feat which won him the Victoria Cross, he was captured and his rifle taken from him. When he refused to give information desired by the Huns, they stood him up against a trench and prepared to shoot him. One of the executioners paused to light a cigarette and Rose hurled a hand grenade which had been concealed in his blouse into the midst of them. He leaped from the trench and succeeded in making his way back to his own trench under a heavy fire from the Germans.

THE BIG FOUR OF GERMANY WHOSE PLANS TO RULE THE WORLD HAS BEEN SQUASHED

This is probably the first photograph received in this country showing the Big Four of Germany as they were when they ruled the destinies of the Empire. From left to right they are: William Hohenzollern, Gen. von Ludendorff, Gen. von Hindenburg and the former Crown Prince. Insert shows latest photo of Frederick William Hohenzollern, former Crown Prince of Germany taken on the Isle of Wieringen where he is living in exile. This most recent photo shows Chinless Fred without his familiar moustache and looking quite aged and worried.

SCHOOL TO BEGIN COSTA RICA IS SEPT. 12TH AT WARNED BY B. Y. C. U. S.

The Brigham Young College will be open for registration for the coming school work just three weeks from yesterday, Friday and Saturday September 12th and 13th are the days of registration. The authorities are planning to commence regular class work, uninterrupted by registration on Monday. The calendar provides for a good long year lasting without any special vacations either spring or fall. The regular Christmas vacation is as short as possible, December 24th to January 5th.

From many points of view this fall gives the brightest prospects in a long time for the college, especially in the normal department. The special legislation in regard to taxes in the state seem to indicate a possibility of adequate salaries in the near future. There is and will continue to be for a year or so, a shortage of teachers in the state of Utah as well as throughout the country. As a normal school the B. Y. C. is one of the oldest in the state with a reputation which places in a good position every graduate recommended by the college. The normal department has been always alert to the new things in education but still conservative enough to avoid fads fancies whose only recommendation is the novelty and advertisement.

In supervised study, in physical education and supervision, in school self government the Brigham Young College has been in the front ranks; it has avoided wisely the waves which have misdirected experimentation to supplant solid education. This tenacious holding to scholarship has kept the B. Y. in the front ranks of the educational institutions of the land.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—President Juan Bautista Quirós of Costa Rica, successor of Federico Tinoco, has been notified by the American government that the validity of the Tinoco constitution or any government acting under that constitution would not be recognized by the United States.

The president transmitted a statement by Secretary Lansing declaring the United States "has consistently used its best efforts to maintain peace in Central America," and had made the following representations to Nicaragua on the subject.

On November 4, 1918, the president of Nicaragua was asked to exercise his good offices to prevent any revolutionary activities in that country directed against Costa Rica.

On January 27, 1919, reiterating the position taken in the previous note.

On April 29, 1919, expressing the hope that "Nicaragua would be guided in this matter by the consideration of the international comity;

And on May 23, 1919, urging Nicaragua to remain neutral in any conflict between General Tinoco and his enemies and to prevent organization of any expeditions in Nicaragua.

"The president and government of Nicaragua," Secretary Lansing wrote, "have responded in a gratifying manner to the requests for their cooperation, and the efficiency of the steps taken to preserve peace in Central America is indicated by the fact that the government of the United States is not advised of any serious collision with defensive forces by any armed forces seeking to enter Costa Rica from Nicaragua or Nicaragua from Costa Rica."

The construction of the Logan Garden City road was officially warded by the government on August 14 to the Christenson Construction company of Salt Lake City. Government engineers are at the present time staking out the road and it is expected that within the near future actual construction will begin.

HELPERS THANKED BY COMMITTEE

The Local War Camp Community Service committee which had the Soldiers Welcome Home celebration in charge, desires to express its appreciation to the county committee, all the sub committees, War Mothers, Y. L. M. I. A. (and any and every one who helped in any way to make the celebration the greatest and best day in the history of the county. It was the close cooperation on the part of all that made the great success.

The help from the county and its committees was very valuable and the committee appreciates it very much. It was a county celebration and every town was represented and did its part. The credit for the success is due the whole county and not any one town or committee.

CACHE COUNTY H. S. ANNOUNCE CALENDAR

The annual announcement of the Cache County high schools have been mailed to all last year students and graduates of the eighth grades. For the benefit of the interested public the school calendar is here printed.

September 8, Registration.
September 9, Instruction begins.
November 27, Thanksgiving vacation.

December 19, Christmas vacation begins.

December 29, school resumed.
January 1, New Year's day.
February 12, Lincoln's birthday.
February 22, Washington's birthday.

April 15, Arbor day.
May 21, Commencement.

The school opens under favorable conditions. At North Cache the students and teachers will be disappointed in not having their new building. Even in face of this, the courses have been strengthened, the faculty enlarged, and everything done that will make the school more efficient than ever before.

At South Cache many improvements have been made. The sewing department has been enlarged; the cafeteria is ready to serve the students; a faculty room has been added; and the faculty increased. The largest enrollment in the history of the school is expected.

The aim of the Cache County high schools will be to make every subject taken function in the life of the student and encourage in every way their moral, intellectual and physical development.

The board of education will follow the same rule regarding transportation of students as in the past. When practical free transportation will be furnished.

All students are expected to register at the beginning of the school year, September 8. The boys in vocational agriculture will be excused after registration until November 3, when new classes will be organized for them. Home project work will be carried on during the period between registration and November 3. This arrangement aims to assist the farmer in the harvest of the crops.

Students wishing boarding places in Hyrum or Richmond should notify the principal of the respective school.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Joseph R. Jensen are preparing to move into Willard Jensen's new home on First West street.

LOGAN-REXBURG CAME WON BY COLLEGIANS

The Collegians won the fourth game of the series with Rexburg on the "Y" park Wednesday by a score of 8 to 7. The game was slow yet exciting from the fact that it was everybody's game until the end. Beckstead pitcher for the locals was in good form and went strong for the first eight innings. He was relieved by Manouk in the ninth. Besides pitching a good game Beckstead made the best hit of the day. He landed on one for two bases with two men on. It went a long way in placing Logan in the lead at the end of the game. The team left for Idaho Falls Thursday afternoon to play the fifth game. There are two games yet to be played between these teams to decide the championship.

Funeral services over the remains of Alfred Thomas Jones will be held in the Second ward meeting house this afternoon at 1:30. Mr. Jones was a former resident of this ward and spent much of his boyhood days here. He was married to Letitia, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Smith. He moved to Pocatello about twenty-six years ago where he worked as a machinist. About six years ago he moved to Butte, Mont., where he was living at the time of his death, which resulted from pneumonia after but four days illness. Mr. Jones is survived by a wife, five girls and two boys, four of whom are married. Mrs. Jones and her family accompanied the remains to Logan which arrived yesterday morning. Mrs. Jones expects to make Logan her future home.
